Adjudicator: Laura Symonds

Laura Symonds trained at the Royal Ballet School and Arts Educational School, London, going on to play a range of principal roles in the West End and regional theatre productions and to do a great deal of work in television, from pantomime to Sunday Night at the London Palladium, the Engelbert Humperdinck Show and two Royal Command Performances. She was the resident singer on the Roy Castle Show and had a solo recording contract with Philips. Laura is now a freelance teacher and choreographer, who is also the director of a theatrical promotions company, as well as and Adjudicator for The British and International Federation of Festivals.

Heads of Section: Wendy Lane & Naomi Lane
