

SPEECH & DRAMA

Adjudicator: Ann Bauer EdD MEd BA(Hons) LRAM LGSM PGCE DipSpLD

Ann Bauer has spent her working life in education teaching in secondary and primary schools, theatres, university and therapy teams, as well as examining drama and theatre studies. Ann ran her own drama school for many years. Ann is also an adjudicator for The British and International Federation of Festivals.

Ann trained to teach under John Hodgson at Bretton Hall, his major influence was the importance of improvisation. Ann continues to be an enthusiastic teacher of improvisation for developing all performance skills.

She believes strongly in the inclusive power of drama, that it offers confidence building, teamwork, and the discipline of controlling body, voice - and nerves. Combining that with her love of the written word, her first degree was English; she counts herself lucky to spend her life talking about what she loves.

Currently Ann combines her teaching with specialist teaching, research and writing in SEN.

In her spare time Ann still attends ballet and tap classes, a life-long passion, enjoys theatre going, advocacy in SEN, precious time with her family and long distance back-packing treks.
